

Waterhog One-End Grand Premier Door Mats

Waterhog One-End Grand Premier Door Mats will be sure to add a touch of style to any single or double door entrance area. This door mat is known for its signature curved end which greatly enhances the look of your typical, rectangular entrance mat.

Constructed of polypropylene, these Waterhog door mats are very quick to dry and will not rot or mildew. And it's a good thing, because the Waterhog One-End Grand Premier Door Mats do a top-notch job trapping water.

In addition, the raised surface design on these entrance mats does a terrific job catching all the dirt, salt, and grime before it ends up on your floors.

These door mats also feature containment borders which make sure to keep all the water and dirt on the mat.

To clean these waterhog mats, simply vacuum or hose down and air dry as needed.
